

RED DOVE

Listen to the Wind

BY SONIA ANTAKI

ILLUSTRATED BY ANDREW BOSLEY

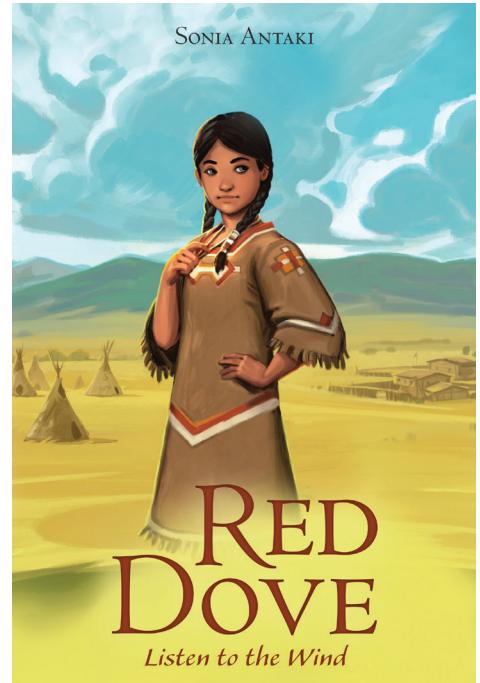

Abandoned by her white father, thirteen-year-old Red Dove faces another lean winter with her Lakota family on the Great Plains. Willful and proud, she is presented with a stark choice: leave her people to live in the white world, or stay and watch them starve. Red Dove begins a journey to find her true place in the world and discovers that her greatest power comes from within herself.

“Although Red Dove’s story takes place 130 years ago and is set against the battle at Wounded Knee, the young Lakota girl is a modern-day heroine and role model. Red Dove is the girl we all wanted to be when we were growing up.”

—Maggie Hardy, author of Sweater Weather

“Readers will fall in love with Red Dove. Her goodness will remain with the reader long after the story has ended.”

—G.K. Foster, author of Untouchable
